"Delhi", the word when uttered, reaches you, thus when your medium is accomplished /developed by virtue of "Aumkar Sadhana", then if I send you a message from Pune, then you receive that message immediately, irrespective of the distance between us, there is no delay in the message delivery. So, according to the vibration theory, when you are physically receptive then you are always close to Dada and Dada is close to you.

I just told you about food grain. Have you experienced anything about it? The devotees answered, "yes", now we need less food. Revered Dada explained – by virtue of "Aumkar Sadhana" the environment is purified, which leads to better production of food grain. This in turn leads to increased National production, which will get us foreign exchange. You see, no nation is completely self-sufficient. Every person has to contribute towards the Nation's Progress. If we have excess of commodities like grain, cloth etc., then we can play a role in the World market. Today, we have nothing to contribute. A devotee said, "we should increase the production of grain. Revered Dada said, "Here in our seminar, farmers have also come". Then asked, "when you sow 10 acres of land, do you get the expected yield?". No, your yield is very low. Where does the balance crop go? It is infested and wasted. How do the worms, which infest the crop, come into existence? The world is created in 2 ways - Sweat born (Svedej) and egg born (Andaj), do you know this? Humans are sole manifestations; in the atmosphere how do other living organisms come into existence? Due to the impurities in the atmosphere. So far you were only using cow dung as manure for your crop, which protected the crop. Now there is impurity in the atmosphere. When there is a pure and impure element, then because of the Union/combination of positive and negative, harmful organism are born. If you have read about farming research then you would know, that 10 years ago the pesticides you used for crop protection are irrelevant today as those disease, doesn't exist now. Today as a result of new organisms (bacteria/virus), new diseases have sprung up. How much research will you do? Sunlight which is a spectrum of 7 colors on entering the atmosphere gets contaminated. Due to the contaminated rays, new organisms are born and they spoil the crop. Then there is a research for it, by then another color from the sunlight spectrum becomes deadly for some other color and some new organism comes into existence. This cycle keeps on repeating. As long as there are impurities in the atmosphere and empty space till then you will keep researching and new deadly organism will keep on breeding. Last year you sowed your fields and 10 years back also you have sowed. Now in these 10 years do you see any progress? Now, not only you have to put in more effort, but the yields/produce is also less.

Carefully see the three pictures below, what do they tell you? Observe and tell me

Temple

Mosque

Church

These symbols appear on Hindu, Muslim & Christian places of worship. These symbols are a testimony of the virtues of our ancestors. Today, we humans are in a difficult situation. Our learned ancestors were already aware of the situation, so they planned a way for us to face these challenges, by creating these places, Temple, Mosque and Church.

This morning, when Gurubhanganis were doing Aumkar Sadhana in the hall, then the Gurubandhus were standing outside bare chest, with the right hand placed on the left hand near the navel. You have already been told what your physical medium is like? Now both transmission and reception are done through the physical medium. By then the Gurubandhus had done thesaadhan i.e. your reception was done, when the Gurubhanganis in the hall were doing the "AUM", Then you were receiving the waves by the reception process and transmitting them in the atmosphere by the transmission process. Did you experience it? At that time, you have purified the environment with little evidence/anyone knowing.

1. Temple: - The deity is enshrined in the temple. The Vedic hymns are recited and mantras are chanted in the temple complex in front of the Deity so that the sound waves are transmitted from the sanctum sanctorum to the spire from where they travel in the atmosphere and reach where there is sorrow and restlessness. This was the reason why the temples were built in the past. Therefore, even if the temple hall was not circular, its sanctum sanctorum was always circular. There is a custom of collective recital of mantras in a well-modulated tone (Udatt-Anudatt). This was the methodology for the recital and the sanctum sanctorum (garbhagrha) was full of sound waves. Then from there, the sound waves would travel upwards in a circular path. There were holes in the temple's summit, from where the waves go out into the atmosphere. God does not need for himself, the sound of chants. These sound waves were used for the welfare of people by God. The sound of these chants goes through the spire of the temple and travel miles away to purify the entire atmosphere. This was the methodology in Hinduism at that time.
2. Moon and Stars: - In the olden days the work of public welfare in Islam was done as follows: - The sun is strong; we cannot look at it for a long duration with a naked eye. We can't even imagine the power of sun or worship it. The moon is illuminated by the sunlight. So, the moon reflects the light of the sun in the atmosphere. For this reason, Muslims directed their meditation (Sadhana) to the moon and that light was the medium through which the vibrations of the meditation (Sadhana) are spread in the atmosphere. This shows that in the past, the vision of every religious leader was vast.
3. The Cross: - You always see a cross at the top of the Church. You say that Jesus Christ was crucified on the cross, hence it is the symbol of Christianity. The explanation is as follows: - Today we need an antenna for TV, its shape is like a cross. Christians pray in the Church according to their religion. The vibrations of those prayers should spread in all directions in the outside atmosphere for the welfare of the world. This is the reason behind the cross in the Church. In this way every religion and its leaders had planned for the welfare of the mankind, many centuries ago and it was being implemented without anyone knowing.

Today, the work of purification of the atmosphere is not being done by the religious places, why so? Here in Goa, there are many temples and the priests are busy 24 hours a day. It seems that they consecrate (Abhishek) the deity many times but is even a single consecration for the appeasement/love of the deity? No. That is, in the whole day or even the whole year no consecration is happening for the love of the deity. Then why are these consecrations happening? Someone's daughter was not getting married; when it happened then Abhishek. Somebody's son was failing the exam, he passed and then again Abhishek. That is to say, when people suffer, to get relief from the suffering, they perform Abhishek's in the temples. That's why there is no divinity in the temples. Today 99% rituals are done for cleansing the Karmas, hence the purification of atmosphere is not being done through the temples.

Every person has taken birth as per his Karma. The person himself is the medium to cleanse that Karma. But the situation today is that, if a sweet is put in your mouth, you still need help to swallow it. Today in which temples are any rituals (Abhishek) etc. are done for the love and devotion for the deity? Nowhere. That's why I have freed you from the Gods – Goddesses and given you Karandiksha along with a prayer. Is it wrong?

Prayer related to Karan Diksha

I, offer prayers at the feet of SadGuru, that the life I have got goes through the stages of Seeker – Accomplished – Perfected (Sadhak – Sidh – Sadhya). In my present birth, my Karmas indebtedness, from many lifetimes, creates obstacles in the attainment of Seeker – Accomplished – Perfected (Sadhak – Sidh – Sadhya) stage. You have rescued me from such bondages and granted me Upasana Diksha, Namsmarran Diksha, Anugrah Diksha, Guru Diksha and Karan Diksha, which helped me in redemption of the past Karmas. That's why, today in this birth, I can easily get the benefit of physical/material (Adhibhautik), divine (Adhidevik), body and mind (Adhyatmik) stages with ease. Further, in this life I receive your eternal Grace i.e. Niranjana Avastha (pure, no bad qualities) and experience it in this birth through my actions, speech and mind (Kaya, Vaacha, Mann) is my humble prayer at your feet.

Whatever I have told you about the consecrations taking place in the temples, if you want to witness it, go to Goa's Kamakshi Temple. All the rituals there, are they for the Goddess? No, that's why the Goddess is maligned. Your question is ?? how is Goddess maligned? The answer is – You have a mirror at home. In that mirror you see your face every day. The mirror doesn't see you. Just by this daily act, the mirror gets dirty and you have to clean it. Similarly, when the rituals in the temple are not to appease God, they sadden/maligned. Gods and Goddesses do not get impure but because of those rituals the divinity diminishes.

In olden days, in the temples, "God" was the medium of the welfare of mankind, helping in good causes and seeking truth. But today, the temple trustees and priests perform prayers and rituals for redemption of your Karmas. There are rituals like Ekadashi Abhishek, Ann Sant Arpan and Brahmin Suvashni Bhojan being performed in the temples. How will these ceremonial rituals lead to righteous/virtuous deeds. It is imperative that a good deed is selfless and desireless. This is not happening in the temples today. Your prayers to the clan deity (Kul Devi/Kul Devta) should not be for seeking solutions to the problem but as a devotion and love for the deity. If you perform Poojas like Laghurudra or Maharudra for getting rid of your problems, it is a sin. If you cannot respect and revere the deities do not disrespect them with such ignorance.

You, yourself have to liberate, yourself from your actions/Karmas. Today your actions hurt you in many ways. Why so? You have been told that because of your Raj (ego, jealousy, helping with a motive) and Tam (selfishness, shrewdness, doubting others) qualities/attributes of your intelligence, you are rendered "powerless". You are just a powerless puppet of your body, speech and mind (Kaya – Vaacha – Mann) that's why your karmas/actions hurt you, and at such times to protect yourself you don't have any savior. The summit of the temple is now just symbolic of its presence, can be seen from far but no longer functional.

For the last 40 years, I have been in this Guru Marg, till date I have not told you any incident with exaggeration. In this Guru Marg, whatever I have experienced and realized, I have shared only 75% with you but when you tell others, you exaggerate. My present birth has been devoted to this Guru Marg. You have no idea about this experience, its beginning or end but you narrate it to others with your own additions. If the Gurus realization/experience is 75% than how can disciples have more than that? For example, some disciples say "at night Baba came and gave me a bidi". If Baba has to give something, he will give you Sanjeevani, why bidi? It will finish soon. Remember, God does not give any perishable things.

Within 24 hours of the Mulakat, some devotees asked me "when will we get the benefit of Aumkar Sadhana"? Let me tell you something regarding this. 30 years ago in the initial stages of the Guru Marg, I attained a stage in which I was for 28 days. My younger brother and my wife saw this state. They did not understand the reason for it. For 28 days I was just a lump of flesh and blood state. Stream of green and red fluid/saliva were flowing from my mouth. I was in that state for 28 days and it is today that I have understood it, 30 years after that stage at 3 AM in the morning. When I was in that state, I did not question God as to what is it? The state that I apparently experienced, took 30 years to be appropriately answered by SadGuru, And you? Yesterday I taught you Aumkar Sadhana and you immediately ask when will we experience the spirituality of Sadhana? You asking this question, it didn't anger me but my child, have patience (Saburi).

What was my state at that time? It is a very deep subject. This demonstration will have to be shown in the next seminar. I told you that generally Aumkar Sadhana is done in the 5th stage than all the kosha's from below are pushed up towards Brahmrant. Lastly the annamyakash merges in the Brahmrant lotus. When the development happens there is a discharge of nectar (Amrit), at this stage a Yogi doesn't need food or water, just one drop of such nectar will suffice his food needs of a year. This is not merely a stage documented in books. I have witnessed this for 28 days, those days I did not eat or drink and even then, I did not die. I became a more radiant person. The development of Brahmrant was complete that is to say that this body of five elements soaked/absorbed all divinity and is fully developed, after which the Brahmrant lotus closes again. Then you have the perception to rule all the three worlds (Tribhuvan).

"Nectar", what is its taste? We say that Gods name is sweeter than nectar, but in reality, nectar is bitter. After Samudra manthan when Gods were taking the pot full of nectar then just a drop fell on the Neem tree and its leaves turned bitter. This means that nectar is bitter and neem is the testimony to it.

Pots full of this type of fluid that was flowing from my mouth, it had seven colors. My wife and my younger brother were witness to this. At that time, they were scared as they did not understand that stage. Today as a "Guru" I can tell you about that stage and also take you to that stage. That time I didn't have a "Guru" medium to guide me, I had only myself!! The answer to the state I was in came 30 years later at 3 am in the morning. Now you think what is the time duration for experiencing the Aumkar Sadhana. To come out of that state it took me 28 days and 30 years to get the answers. Then how many days will you take to experience the "Aumkar Sadhana"?

Let Peace Be To All
